REPORT NO.

1. In late February, Harbin and Chiamussu were the only cities in Manchuria in which residents were issued "good citizens identification cards" (Liang Min Chu 良民証). In other cities and towns of Manchuria, all residence certificates have been cancelled for bearers who have been away from the area in which the certificates were originally issued for more than three weeks without proper authorization.
2. In late February all travelers were thoroughly inspected by public security personnel at all railroad station on the Mukden-Peiping, Peiping-Shanghai, Chekiang-Kiangsi, and Hankow-Canton Railroads. All hotel clerks along these railroads were compelled by the authorities to report on the activities of travelers.
3. On 16 March because of heavy demands for military transport, the Northeast Railway Administration ordered passenger trains reduced to one a day.
4. In mid-March all schools above middle school level in Manchuria were closed and students ordered to join the Korean war effort.
5. In early March there were Communist military cadre schools in Shihchiachuang (114-28, 38-02), Kalgan, Mukden, Changchun, Tsitsihar, Chiamussu, Harbin, and Lutanchiang.
6. In late March CHU Chi-nen (朱其嫩) and KAO Lin-hui (高麟晖), representatives of the Mukden Cadre Training School, were in Shanghai recruiting 300 educated young men for the school. Applicants must be recommended by Communist organs in Shanghai and will receive six months training in Mukden, after which time they will be assigned to minor administrative positions in the Mukden City Government.
